

Burlington Historic Preservation Commission

January 11, 2022

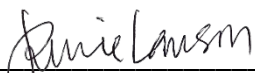

The Certified Local Government of Burlington, NC considered the National Register request at the Burlington Historic Preservation Commission public meeting on January 11, 2022 and approved the following statement:

We, the Burlington Historic Preservation Commission, have reviewed and discussed the nomination for the Aurora Cotton Mills Finishing Plant – Baker- Cammack Hosiery Mills Plant and find that the property meets the criteria for listing in the National Register of Historic Places as stated in Section 8 of the report. We, therefore, recommend that the property be submitted for listing in the Register.

James Euliss

James Euliss, Commission Chair

The commission expressed excitement for the nomination and its positive impact on the Burlington Community. No additional public comments were received. The motion for approval was made by James Euliss and seconded by Lori Bryan. It passed unanimously on a 7-0 vote by James Euliss, Brian Pennington, Russ Vandermass-Peeler, Lori Bryan, Kristin Meinking, Josh Adkins and Wendy Geiss.

Attest:
Jamie Lawson, HPC Liaison

THE CHIEF ELECTED LOCAL OFFICIAL OR THE LOCAL GOVERNING BOARD SHOULD COMPLETE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING COMMENT PARAGRAPHS:

C. I, Mayor James Butler, or We, the Burlington City Council, have reviewed the nomination for Aurora Cotton Mills Finishing Plant – Baker-Cammack Hosiery Mills Plant and find that the property meets the criteria for listing in the National Register of Historic Places as stated in Section 8 of the report. We therefore, recommend that the property be submitted for listing in the Register.

Additional Comments:

 1-18-22
Chief Local Elected Official's signature and date